

SILENT WALK

On Friday 18th November members of Pat Thomas House, Allambee Counselling, Zonta, with many members of other local groups and the community met at the Mewburn Gardens in Mandurah for the sixth annual Peel Regional Domestic Violence Memorial and Silent Walk.

The service, with Paddi Creevey as MC, included Welcome to Country and a song by George Walley (with Ailsa Williams), songs by Halls Head Choir, an address by Sherrilee Mitchell, from Family and Domestic Violence Unit, and a very emotional Survivors story, followed by a minutes silence.

Our Zonta Club bright Hi-viz vests were a great success with Zontians and many others wearing them, displaying the "Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women" on the back.

Following the Service the crowd lined up behind the banners for the Silent Walk through the city to the Performing Arts Centre for morning tea.

Some of our members who walked were Shirley Tidy, Liz Woodgate, Di Marsh, Jane Oakley, Lorraine Webb, Jenny Crake, Bev Jackson and in front Dee Saunders and Wendy Kirkby.
