

SHAE DIGNEY

Shae aims to become a full-time musician and financially support herself as an Indi/Folk artist.

Her long-term goal is to attend the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA) studying the Diploma of Music Industry, to develop and improve her skills.

Her short-term goals:

- To perform around the South West to raise money for cancer, shaving her head and donating all money raised from her performances.
- To improve her song writing skills and knowledge of the music industry, she has organised mentoring with a musician and continuing music theory and vocal lessons with another musician.
- Continue to play at community events such as ANZAC and Australia Day ceremonies as well as Festival Arty and Boyup Brook Country Music Festivals.
